

ANNUAL MEETING 2013

EXTRA-DAY SUGGESTIONS – Saturday 18 May

We hereby suggest some possibilities for enjoying the extra day in Mallorca

1. The Spanish Village (“El pueblo español”)

The Spanish Village is an outdoor museum. It was opened in 1967. It was designed as a Village which sought to gather the main characteristics of the peoples of Spain. The museum occupies a total area of 6.365 m², and reproduces various buildings, squares and streets representing several Spanish cities. Today it has the function of outdoor architectural museum as well as popular craft shows. It is also used for events such as conferences, meetings, conventions and exhibitions. Buses nº 5, 46 & 105. Price: 6 €. Timetable: from 9.00 to 17.00 hrs. <http://www.congress-palace-palma.com/>

2. Es Baluard Museum

The Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art of Palma is one of the most important of its kind in Spain. The museum houses an important collection of authors related in some way to the Balearic Islands. The museum occupies a privileged place in the former defensive bastion of Sant Pere, a sixteenth-century building located in the Bay of Palma. Baluard has held important exhibitions: Rebecca Horn (2004), Fabrizio Plessi (2004), Picasso (2006), Andy Warhol (2006), Joan Miró (2006 and 2008), Santiago Rusiñol (2007), Anselm Kiefer (2009) Robert Mapplethorpe (2009), Joana Vasconcelos (2009), Juan Uslé (2010), Alberto García-Alix (2010), Eduardo Arroyo (2011) and Christian Boltanski (2011), amongst others. <http://www.esbaluard.org/en/>.
