2. Arrival

1. Bus - From Birmingham International Airport you can get the number 900 bus – stand J (on Comet Road) to Birmingham (Pavillions) where you would then walk to Digbeth (Moor St Selfridges) (approx. 6 minutes) and catch the number 126 bus – stand MS1. This will then deliver you to Coronation Gardens, Dudley which is opposite the Broadway campus. Total journey time is likely to take just under 2 hours by bus. Further information about this journey can be obtained from www.transportdirect.co.uk where you can also book tickets. An “all day” bus ticket currently costs £4.20 although this may well change.
2. Train – From Birmingham International Airport you can catch a train from the train station (Birmingham International Rail Station) to Sandwell & Dudley Rail Station. From there you can either catch the number 121 bus to Dudley Town, or you can catch a taxi (cost approximately £10). Prices for the journey from Birmingham International to Sandwell & Dudley is likely to cost between £8.40 and £12.60 return.
3. Taxi – a taxi journey from Birmingham International can be purchased for about £40 each way. We would recommend booking the taxi in advance as this will be less expensive than using a black cab on arrival (substantially more expensive).
